

Marion Dumeige - Biography

French soprano Marion Dumeige is recognized for the beauty of her voice, her sensitive artistry and musical versatility in a wide-ranging repertoire that spans the Baroque period through 21st century contemporary music. As said by the professional jury of Dutch Classical Talent Tour and Award: “Marion is a cannon! A true opera singer with an engaging personality. Her empathy and expressiveness are admirable”.

Ms. Dumeige won the Händel Choir Jubilee Award 2022. She is laureate of the edition 2020/2021 of the Dutch Classical Talent Tour & Award. In this context, she was offered a tour of twelve concerts in The Netherlands. She presented a participative and intimate miniature opera.

She has performed operatic roles such as Fiordiligi in Mozart’s Così fan tutte, Arsace in Graun’s Cesare and Cleopatra, Tigrane in Händel’s Radamisto, The Countess of Dunmow in Berkeley’s A Dinner Engagement, La Baronne in Offenbach’s La Vie Parisienne and Catherine in his operetta Pomme d’api.

Last season, Ms. Dumeige made her debut at the Concertgebouw in Amsterdam in Händel’s Messiah. She has also been the soprano soloist in Vivaldi’s Gloria, Stravinsky’s Mass, Mozart’s Requiem, Fauré’s Requiem, Dvořák’s Te Deum and Rheinberger’s Stabat Mater.

In addition to her solo career, Ms. Dumeige is also a permanent member of the Groot Omroepkoor where she is a 2nd Soprano as of August 2024.

Over the past three years she has collaborated with renowned choirs such as the Groot Omroepkoor, the Dutch National Opera Choir and the Opera Ballet Vlaanderen choir.

Highlights include Widmann’s Arche, Schumann’s Das Paradies und die Peri, Beethoven’s 9th Symphony, Mozart’s Krönungsmesse, Platel’s C(h)oeurs, Verdi’s Ernani, Bizet’s Les Pêcheurs de Perles and Wagner’s Lohengrin.

Ms. Dumeige studied at the Conservatoire de Caen and the Conservatoire de Rennes in France before coming to The Netherlands, where she finished her voice bachelor’s degree at Het Conservatorium van Amsterdam in June 2018. Two years later, she graduated from the Dutch National Opera Academy, where she obtained her master degree in Opera. Ms. Dumeige is now studying with Margreet Honig and Selma Harkink.
